SHS GIRLS GOLF TEAMS - 2007/2008

Sisters High School Girls Golf Teams - 2007 and 2008. Individual and Team Champions. The Sisters High School girls' golf teams from 2007 and 2008 consisted of an amazing group of champions on and off the golf courses. The 2007 team, coached by Mary Flande (2016 HOF inductee), won both the district championship and the state championship. Lead at the State Championship Tournament by sophomore Lindsay Reeve with a fourth-place finish, the team consisted of Reeve, Alexis Wainwright (fifth overall), Shelby Ross, Meghan Crowder, and Claire Mutchler. The 2008 team, again coached by Mary Flande, repeated as both district and state champions. Lindsay Reeve finished as state comedalist. Lead again at the State Championships by Reeve, the team consisted of Alexis Wainwright (making her fourth state appearance), Ocean Yap-Powell, Meghan Crowder, Claire Mutchler, Shelby Ross, and Emily Rawls. Reeve continued her golfing career at New Mexico State University and the University of Montana. As two-time state champions, the 2007 and 2008 girls' golf teams are part of a rare and elite group of Oregon golfers.
