SISTERS OUTDOOR QUILT SHOW

Sisters Outdoor QUILT SHOW

Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show. Creativity, Community, Tradition.

Founded in 1975 by Jean Wells, the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show began with a handful of quilts displayed outside the Stitchin' Post by Jean and her friends. From those humble beginnings, it has grown into the world's largest outdoor quilt show, attracting more than 10,000 visitors annually to Sisters. Celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2025, the Quilt Show has become an internationally recognized celebration of quilting, artistry, and community, transforming the streets of Sisters into a colorful outdoor gallery each July.

The Quilt Show's success reflects the vision of Jean Wells and the extraordinary dedication of generations of volunteers and staff. Its relationship with Sisters High School has provided scholarships, fundraising opportunities, and meaningful experiences for students in leadership, service, and community involvement. The Show also generates millions of dollars in economic activity, supporting local businesses and establishing Sisters as an international destination for creativity and craftsmanship.

For more than half a century, the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show has embodied the spirit of Sisters through volunteerism, generosity, education, and artistic excellence. More than an annual event, it has become an enduring part of the community's identity and a treasured tradition connecting generations of residents, artists, students, and visitors.
